TASMANIAN POSTAL STATIONERY – The Malcolm Groom Gold Medal collection

The POSTAL CARDS:

- 431 PS 1880 WALCH'S TASMANIAN POST CARD study on exhibit page with mint examples on white paper, buff paper additionally embossed with ½d die for overseas use, mint example with hand-written explanation by James Walch of the reasons for the issue of these cards (to overcome the objections voiced in the Tasmanian Parliament that the public would dislike post cards) and a card used from Torquay to Latrobe with 2d Sideface added to meet the postage (part address deleted).
Only two examples are recorded of these cards commercially used. (4) $600 - $700
- 432 PS 1882 Walch's Tasmanian Post Card on buff paper, mint; together with notice issued by J Walch & Sons explaining the purpose of issuing their post cards, signed by James Walch. Fine (2) $80 - $100
- 433 PS 1882 (H&G.1) 1d locally printed by lithography study on exhibit page with 2 mint examples showing the key types of variation in the ornament setting & 2 examples of earliest recorded usage being March 22 1882 from Torquay to Launceston & March 29 1882 at Hobart. All in fine condition and a good lot. (4)..... $200 - $250
- 434 PS 1882 (H&G.1) 1d locally printed by lithography study on pages of the plate positions and ornament settings (9 mint) & 2 used examples from Richmond to Jerusalem and Bothwell to Hobart. Condition fine. Useful lot. (11)... $350 - $400
- 435 PS 1882 (H&G.1) locally produced card used on November 27 1882 from Deloraine to Victoria with additional 1d Sideface added to meet the postage required under the 1881 Postal Act, neatly cancelled by 2nd alloc. numeral "25" of Deloraine with Launceston and Melbourne backstamps. Fine condition for used example of these cards. A scarce example of the intercolonial rate for post cards. (Photo) $400 - $500
- 436 PS 1882 (H&G.1) locally produced card used January 10 1883 from Port Esperance (cancelled 2nd alloc numeral 71) to Melbourne underpaid for the post card rate and treated as a letter with Deficient Postage.../Fine... handstamp, MORE TO PAY in oval applied and 2d deficiency and 2d fine indicated in mss. Melbourne arrival mark on front. Slight soiling and adhesions on reverse otherwise fine. A scarce rate and tax markings. (Photo) $400 - $500
- 437 PS 1882 (H&G.1) card used and registered from New Norfolk to Rarotonga via Auckland, with embossed ½d in orange to meet the overseas post card rate with additional 3d Platypus added to cover registration fee. R in circle and boxed Hobart registration marks and Registered Auckland transit mark on front. Minor faults but a scarce and colourful usage and destination. (Photo)$1,400 - $1,600
- 438 PS 1882 (H&G.2) study of the De La Rue London printings on exhibition page with mint examples of Plate A and B as well as early usage (March 1884 and Feb 1886) for each; also wrapper band for these cards, set of twelve mint cards as sold with the wrapper, mint example stated to be De La Rue proof copy with devaluation punch hole and SPECIMEN overprint. Condition fine throughout. (19)..... $600 - $700

Fine condition and nice usages. (2) $400 - $450
- 444 PS 1884 - 1889 study on exhibit page of the LOCAL PRINTINGS of the 1d postal card (H&G.3) with fresh examples of the July 1884, October 1884 and December 1888 printings and a card from unknown printing date in deep vermilion. Extraordinary range of shades (vermilion to deep maroon) especially when compared to the consistency of the London printings. All fine condition. (4) $350 - $400
- 445 PS 1884 - 1889 study on exhibit pages of the LOCAL PRINTINGS used with the 1884 maroon printings (3) used from South Bridgewater, Launceston and Hamilton (grossly miscut); the December 1888 vermilion printing is present with usage from Millbrook (clear cds), Young Town and Ouse. Condition fine and a scarce group. (6) $300 - $350

- 446 PS 1884-1903 extensive study on leaves and loose of the locally produced 1d postal cards (16 mint) with wide range of local printings, 1894 Exhibition cards, shades and usage covering all the papers and incl. some very scarce and striking shades and printings. Condition fine throughout. (40)..... $500 - $600
- 447 PS 1891 (July 2) 1d postal card (H&G.3b) used from Hobart to Prague uprated with 3d Platypus & 2d Sideface to meet the 6d rate for letters to European countries pre-UPU membership of the Australian Colonies. Prague receival mark of August 12. Post cards were so treated until October 1891 admission of the Australian Colonies to the UPU and cards posted at the letter rate are extremely scarce. Condition fine. (Photo) $450 - $500
- 448 PS 1893 (April 10) 1d postal card from George Town to Michigan uprated with ½d Tablet showing San Francisco transit marking; also 1898 (April 5) similarly uprated to Germany endorsed 'per S.S. Mariposa via San Francisco' with German arrival mark on front. Fine. (2)..... $200 - $250
- 449 PS 1895 - 1902 (H&G.3a-c) study on exhibit pages of the locally printed cards mint (8) and used(5) showing the variations in card stock and shades which occurred during this period; includes printings in fluorescent ink, on poor quality card varying from white to tan and flaws in lettering missing I in SIDE and damaged THE. Used includes Penguin (Creek removed) to Ulverstone and nice 1903 taxed card to Austria. Condition is fine throughout and an excellent study of these later issues well written up. (13) $500 - $550
- 450 PS 1895 1d postal card group from local printing using fluorescent ink showing example with wrapper and green interleaving, worn plates, uprated usage to England with additional ½d Tablet and local use from Bracknell to Launceston. Condition fine. (5) $200 - $250
- 451 PS 1896 (March 20) 1d postal card (H&G.3b) used from Hobart to Bombay with additional ½d Tablet paying the foreign postcard rate with Tuticorin and Colaba receival marks on front. Condition fine. (Photo) $120 - $140
- 452 PS 1897 (Feb.11) 1d postal card (H&G.3a) used from Hobart to Nagasaki with additional ½d Tablet paying the foreign postcard rate with Hong Kong transit and Nagasaki receival on reverse. Condition fine and scarce usage..... $140 - $160
- 453 PS 1897 (October 25) 1d postal card (H&G.3a) used from Hobart to South Africa with additional ½d Tablet paying the foreign postcard rate with Durban arrival mark on reverse. Condition fine and scarce usage. $120 - $140
- 454 PS 1898 (August 12) 1d postal card local printing from Hobart to New Zealand with additional 1d Sideface (London printing) added for late fee. Auckland arrival backstamp. Fine. (Photo) $160 - $180
- 455 PS 1892 THREE HALFPENNY REPLY CARD DE LA RUE ESSAY: both halves of printed card in issued colour but with stamp impression on both halves hand drawn in pencil. Reply half sustained some damage when removed from the De La Rue Records but a very attractive item and an important piece in the context of Tasmanian postal stationery. Unique. (Photo)$2,500 - $3,000
- 456 PS 1892 1½d Reply Cards (H&G.4) mounted on exhibit page with mint example showing minor plate flaw and forward half used December 22 1897 from Launceston to Germany. Fine condition (2) $150 - $200
- 457 PS 1892-1905 1½d REPLY CARD study on exhibition pages of the cards with identification of the types, usage of both halves, overprinted for the Tasmanian Exhibition 1894-95 and the 1905 1d overprints. Noted two examples of cards cancelled for use in PO reference sets, used examples to Finland, Hong Kong and cut out examples (M & U) of the 1d overprinted cards perforated T. A marvellous opportunity to form a study of these issues. Condition is generally fine throughout. (21)..... $800 - $900
- 458 PS 1892 1½d Reply card REPLY HALF USED, examples mounted on exhibition page with Feb. 4 1902 Bendigo to Hobart with additional 1d Victorian stamp paying a late fee and August 16 1906 New York to Kindred with Kindred arrival mark of Sept. 21 1906. Scarce use of Reply half for their correct purpose. Fine. (2) (Photo) $400 - $500
- 459 PS 1892 1½d Reply card showing both types of SPECIMEN overprint (Butler types D & E). Fine condition. (2)..... $100 - $120
- 460 PS 1892 1½d Reply card showing both types of SPECIMEN overprint (Butler types D & E). Fine condition. (2)..... $100 - $120
- 461 PS 1894 1½d Reply card overprinted for TASMANIAN INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION 1894-95: study on exhibit page with mint (2) & 1895 (Sept.30) used New Norfolk to Hamilton, Victoria. Condition fine throughout. (3) $300 - $350
- 462 PS 1905 1d overprinted Reply card mint and March 1912 usage to England, mounted on exhibition page. These cards are uncommon especially considering that PO records state that only 192 cards were sold in 1910. With 21,600 cards printed initially in 1892 and a significant stock still remaining by 1917 used examples are considered undervalued. Fine condition. (2)..... $250 - $300
- 463 PS 1905 1d overprinted Reply card (both halves) used to Samoa, uprated for the correct rate with 1½d on 5d Tablet and cancelled with boxed LOOSE SHIP LETTER handstamp. - 477 PS 1905 1d KEVII card used Feb.8 1906 from Hobart to Turkey, underpaid and taxed 5 centimes. Suez transit mark on front & British Post Office Constantinople arrival mark of March 18 1906. Some toning but a scarce destination. $100 - $120
- 478 PS 1905 (H&G.11) 1d KEVII scarlet on buff card PERFORATED T for Government use, used by Inspector of Police April 4 1908 from Deloraine to Longford. Fine and scarce card officially used. $400 - $500
- 479 P 1906 PLATE PROOF (12.3cm by 17cm) in black of KEVII 1d post card taken circa 1950 from the plate held at the Tasmanian Museum showing two units from the plate including the unit with the stamp impression removed for production of the 1908 American Fleet cards. Fine condition and an interesting piece of the story. (Photo) $300 - $400
- 480 PS 1906 Edward VII postal card (H&G.12) FULL PLATE PROOF of both upper and lower plates from the plates used for the final printings. Prepared in the 1950's when the plates were discovered the impressions are made on brownish paper (each measuring 76cm by 51cm) by hand as there were no longer presses available to take quality impressions of the plates. The proofs show the final arrangement of the plates (23 impressions each with three cliches added down the left side and also the cliche removed to prepare the plate for the 1908 Fleet cards. All the final flaws on the cliches are plated and accompanied by a letter explaining the circumstances in which the impressions were taken, Believed to be one of only 5 prints taken. An interesting item. (2) (Photo)$800 - $1,000
- 481 PC HAND PAINTED POSTAL CARD: 1906 (H&G.12) 1d KEVII card with attractive scene of 'Watson's Bay, Sydney, N.S.W.' painted in oil on addressed card to Launceston (no postal markings). Archival records indicate that Tasmania was allocated a budget of £20 to purchase paper to produce cards which would be suitable for hand painting but they did not respond to requests from the Deputy Postmaster General for their sales figures. It is unsure whether they produced such cards and this item may be evidence that they did. Accompanied by mint example of a similar card. Condition generally fine with minor crease through the painted card. An important item of Tasmanian postal stationery. (2) (Photo) $400 - $600
- 482 PS 1906 (H&G.12) 1d KEVII scarlet on buff card PERFORATED T for Government use, used April 1913 from Hobart to Mangalore. Some toning and minor corner damage but a scarce card perforated T. .. $200 - $300

483	PS	1906 (H&G.12) 1d KEVII scarlet on buff card PERFORATED T for Government use, mint examples showing T as 7 by 7 holes and 6 by 6 holes. Minor spotting on one otherwise fine. Also cut-out showing 6 by 7 holes. (3) $350 - $400
484	PS	1909 (H&G.12a) 1d KEVII scarlet on white card from the last printing made from the plate, mounted on exhibit page with mint example & July 5 1912 use from Hobart to Launceston. Printed in 1909 but not issued until 1912 to clear stocks prior to the Commonwealth issues. Scarce cards particularly used. Condition fine. (2) $300 - $400
485	PS	1908 AMERICAN FLEET CARD: (H&G.13) fresh mint example. The scarcest of the State issues with only 2,000 produced. (Photo) $400 - $600
486	PS	1908 (August 28) AMERICAN FLEET CARD (H&G.13) used from Hobart to Natal with Durban revel mark of Sept 23. EARLIEST RECORDED DATE & a wonderful usage to a scarce destination. Fine condition. (Photo)$1,200 - $1,400
487	PS	1908 (August 31) AMERICAN FLEET CARD (H&G.13) posted from Hobart to Milwaukee, USA with additional ½d Pictorial added to meet the foreign postcard rate, General Delivery datestamp of Milwaukee adds to the colour of this item as well as the comment in the message 'Greetings from Hobart, Tasmania, sorry your fleet are not calling.' One of only two uprated Tasmanian Fleet cards recorded and a very attractive usage. Fine condition. (Photo)$2,000 - $2,500
488	PS	1908 (September 2) AMERICAN FLEET CARD (H&G.13) used from Hobart to New Town. Attractive local usage in fine condition. Scarce. (Photo)$1,000 - $1,200
489	PS	1908 (October 24) AMERICAN FLEET CARD (H&G.13) used West Devonport to Brunswick, Victoria. Scarce usage from a country Post Office. Fine condition. (Photo) $800 - $1,000
490	PS	1917 1d overprinted Reply Card separated and FORWARD HALF with message obliterated, mint. War shortages caused the Post Office to put the remaining stock of 3,410 reply cards to use by separating and overprinting them for use as postcards. They were issued in Tasmania on March 26 1917. Fine and extremely scarce Tasmanian and Commonwealth postal stationery. (Photo) $800 - $1,000

- 502 PS 1900 DE LA RUE ESSAY for the scenic letter card which they were commissioned to produce. Two essays were produced endorsed A and B, this is endorsed A and shows River Derwent, New Norfolk scene and proposed stamp area painted in lilac. Unique, attractive and a key item in a study of the letter cards. (Photo)$2,500 - $3,000
- 503 PS 1900 DE LA RUE ESSAY for the scenic letter card which they were commissioned to produce by the Tasmanian Government. This essay endorsed B and shows Great Lake, A Fisherman's Paradise caption pasted onto card. Scene is hand-painted in grey and proposed stamp area painted in lilac. Unique, attractive and a key item in a study of the letter cards. The second essay was required as the Great Lake card required additional printing of the fishing information recorded on reverse. (Photo)$2,500 - $3,000
- 504 PS COMPREHENSIVE STUDY on exhibit pages of the 1900/1901 De La Rue 2d violet on blue stock letter cards (H&G.1) with examples of all the six scenes and incl. examples of the January 1900 printing in slate violet, October 1900 printing in reddish violet and an intermediate shade; platings of the two positions of the Great Lake card; two JW Beattie postcards showing the scenes used (River Derwent and Lake Hartz) for the letter cards and a wrapper band in which the cards were sold in packs of 12 (two of each scene). - 506 PS 1903 (April 25) De La Rue letter card (Great Lake) addressed to Hobart & cancelled Bothwell endorsed in mss. 'Received at Bothwell office in this condition'. Card is opened and the message inside (April 21) gives some clue to the reason for the endorsement of the otherwise undamaged card. The writer is fishing in the Highlands and comments that he has handed the card to a drover with a mob of cattle for posting at Bothwell and that they are considering a 12 mile walk to Lake Echo in search of better fishing (having only caught one 8lb fish). It is possible the drover opened the card before posting. An interesting usage and endorsement. (Photo) $200 - $240
